APPENDIX.

Section 528 of Carroll's Kentucky Code of Civil Practice:

> "The process by which the attendance of a witness is required is a subpoena. It is a writ directed to the sheriff, requiring him to summon the person named therein to attend at a particular time and place, to testify as a witness. It may, when the court or the judge thereof so directs, require the witness to bring with him any book, writing or other thing under his control, which he is bound by law to produce in evidence."
